

A Taste of North Lewis

Excursion Details

Outline	If mouth-watering delicacies and heart-warming stories of local traditions, accompanied by the call of the bagpipes, are your client's idea of a good time, then this excursion is for them. Hosted by one of our expert local chefs The Niseach Chef, you will experience a six-course tasting menu featuring some of North Lewis' most famous dishes including handmade Ness Black Pudding, island beverages including Hearach whisky, interspersed with the chef's personal stories behind their dishes. The experience is accompanied by live traditional Scottish music, including your very own personal piper who will give you that real North Lewis welcome. For a taste of what to expect, watch this video.
Timing	2 hours 30 minutes
Capacity	Min 20 - Max 40 Bespoke service for smaller and larger groups, please contact for information.
Price	1-10 people - £180 per person 11 - 20 people - £115 per person 21- 40 people- £105 per person
Facilities	Toilets and refreshments available
Availability	Mon - Sat, 2-3 excursions per week
Accessibility	Wheelchair & pram accessible

Organisation Details

Clan MacQuarrie Community Centre

Clan MacQuarrie Community Centre is situated in the coastal village of Borge in the North West of the Isle of Lewis. The centre is run entirely by its volunteer committee who dedicate their time to supporting community events and activities. Its purpose is to provide a welcoming meeting place for the entire community and to encourage participation by the community in as broad a range of activities as possible, they have a space for everyone.

The Niseach Chef

The Niseach Chef, also known as, Allan Macritchie, is an experienced chef who has been working in the catering industry for almost 20 years. Allan enjoys sharing his knowledge and experiences to help inspire and explore flavours and ingredients.

